

BPW Saskatoon

Business and Professional Women of Saskatoon Inc.

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 16, 2018

Announcing the Recipients of BPW Saskatoon Educational Bursaries

Saskatoon, SK – Business and Professional Women of Saskatoon are pleased to announce the recipients of the 2017/2018 Educational Bursary for Mature and Aboriginal students in the Saskatoon area who are currently attending school full time. In alphabetical order, they are:

- Anna Hogue
- Leanne Falkowsky Mazza
- Kyla Richardson

“Anna, Leanne, and Kyla – your dedication and drive inspires us all here at BPW Saskatoon. Your stories push us to work even harder to provide more funding for future bursary opportunities through events like Accessory to a Change.” – Linda Yip, BPW Saskatoon Bursary Committee Chair

Please join us on Thursday, June 7 at Accessory to a Change 2018 to meet our three recipients and raise money for next year’s Bursary Program.

About BPW Saskatoon – BPW Saskatoon is a member of BPW International, a network of business and professional women. Our three pillars are education, leadership, and advocacy. BPW Saskatoon is committed to supporting the educational aspirations of women in our community through our Bursary Program. For over 60 years, we have invited Mature and Indigenous women in the Saskatoon area to apply for one of our educational bursaries. Since 2011, BPW Saskatoon has awarded over $51,000 in bursary funds.

Contact:

Linda Yip

Bursary Committee Chair

BPW Saskatoon

bursaries@bpwsaskatoon.com